

We Would Love To Get Your Review Of Curry n Kebob

As a new business, we are trying to spread the word about our restaurant. And getting seen on Google is one of our goals -- and we need your help!

Reviews are important part of being found on Google, and we'd love to get your review of Curry n Kebob on our Google Places Page.

If you have a Google account, all you need to do is sign in and then either scan the QR code below to get to our Google Places page (if you have a mobile device), or type this URL into your browser's address line

Then, just click on the "Write A Review" button and you will be able to enter your review.

Thanks for your help with this. And please let us know if there is anything we could do to make your dining experience with us even better.

We'd Love To Get Your Review Of Curry n Kebob

We've been asking for your reviews since we started – both to see how we are doing and because reviews are an important part of a local business getting seen on Google – and I'd like to thank you for your wonderful responses and comments.

It has literally made our day to read how much you have enjoyed our restaurant and our approach to Indian Food.

But of course, just as I thought we had this review process smoothed out, to my surprise on May 30th Google completely changed how they are doing their local business listings.

The upshot is that now only those who are part of their social network, Google +, are able to post a review of a local business on Google (in their new Google + Local section).

Since I know only a few of you may be part of Google +, here's what we've come up with.

If you are part of Google + and would be open to posting a review, all you have to do is to log onto Google +, and then use this URL to go to our Google + Local Page and click on "Write a Review" to post your review.

If, on the other hand, you aren't a member of Google +, but you still would be interested in posting a review, you can find our Yelp page where you can post a review (if you are a member of Yelp) by putting in this URL --

Thanks again for your help with this. And please let us know if there is anything we can do to make your dining experience with us even better.
